BAR ASSOCIATION MEETING.
Preparing to Receive and Entertain the State Association.

The State Bar Association will meet in this city July 11 and 12, its sessions to be held in the United States Circuit Court room.

Local members of the association are preparing for the reception and entertainment of their brethren with the intelligence and liberality characteristic of the fraternity.

The first step in this direction was taken yesterday, when a meeting of the local Bar Association was held in the Chancery Court room, prior to the opening of that Court for regular business.

Col. J. L. McGee was on motion of Col. L. B. McFarland, unanimously chosen to preside over the deliberations.

The object of the meeting was tersely set forth by the chairman, after which Chancellor Estes moved that two committees—one on finance and one on arrangements—be appointed to carry into execution the purposes for which the meeting was called.

Chancellor Estes and others addressed the meeting upon the importance of making the proposed entertainment a success, and the pride that every member of the local association should feel in the undertaking.

Following are the committees appointed upon the motion of the Chancellor: Committee of Arrangements—S. P. Walker, H. C. Warriner and J. M. Trezevant.

Finance Committee—F. J. Edmondson, F. Poston and J. H. Malone. Mr. Edmondson, Mr. Poston and Mr. Malone, as a committee, have charge of the program of the meeting, such as designating subjects for discussion, naming the leaders, etc.

These duties have been attended to, and forwarded to the association secretary, Mr. Banner, at Nashville. Among the many features will be a paper by Judge T. J. Semmes, of New Orleans, on the subject, "The Mule as a Fixture Under the Civil Law."

This comes as the result of a recent meeting between Messrs. McKenna and Semmes at Jackson, Tenn. The latter suggested the topic in a discussion of the Louisiana law, which designates that mules, horses and other stock, together with all implements, were part of a farm's fixtures, and went as such along with the farm and under the foreclosure sale.

The mule was the thing that struck Col. McKenna, who regards that animal as one of the unique and interesting features of American civilization. He at once requested Mr. Semmes to read them a paper on the subject, which was consented to.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.
A Woman Breaks Her Leg by a Fall—Other Accidents.

The city force that is doing the street work so often complained of capped the climax last night by tearing up the street corner Second and East Court, piling up the large street crossing rocks and leaving them so, digging holes in the street and leaving them uncovered and, to make the trap more certain, fencing the spot around with old crates and rubbish to blind the eyes of pedestrians.

Crossing on this corner last night a woman named Annie Mann, stumbled, fell and broke her left leg above the ankle. The wound is a compound fracture and the bones protrude through the skin, making a sickening sight.

Dr. Thornton waited on the unfortunate woman, who was taken to her lodgings at No. 201 Main street, where her wound was dressed. There was no red light or other signal showing the dangerous condition of the street, and when an Appeal reporter reached the scene and began investigating he "took a header" into an uncovered hole, the profundity of which is unknown.

The criminal carelessness of those in charge of the work has doubtless placed the city in a condition where a considerable sum will have to be paid the injured woman in damages.

Charles Samuels, of Nashville, while entering a barber shop in the basement at No. 282 Main street, fell on the steps, seriously injuring his spine. He was brought to police headquarters and stretched on a bench, where he lay in mortal agony for a long time, it being impossible to induce any of the city physicians to come and see him. Dr. Williams was telephoned, corner of Beale and Main, ordered him sent to the hospital, where he arrived near midnight and received his first medical attention.

J. J. McCallister, a groceryman at No. 380 Beale street, while attempting to drive the stopper down in a bottle of soda water, by striking it against the bottom of his counter, had the bottle explode, tearing and lacerating his hand in a horrible manner. He was waited on by Dr. Budde and Samuels.

Dr. W. H. Bosbury, of Louisville, who claims to be eighty-five years of age and a practicing physician for over half a century, is lying in the station-house office in a helpless condition. Dr. Bosbury claims to have exhausted his means in an effort to recuperate in Hot Springs, and is now penniless. He is in a pitiable condition.

A runaway occurred on Hernando street yesterday, which resulted in the breaking up of a buggy.
